

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 359
By Springer

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend James Wade Moore for his heroic efforts.

WHEREAS, our country was conceived by individuals willing to sacrifice their personal safety and concerns for others; the Volunteer State is especially proud to have such valiant men and women who place other lives before their own; and

WHEREAS, James Wade Moore of Lyles, Tennessee, is one such heroic person who is greatly deserving of recognition by this General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, while driving down the road, James Moore and a friend, James "Jimbo" Warren, were witnesses to a two-car accident. Without thoughts of their own personal safety, James and "Jimbo" rushed to the scene to assist; and

WHEREAS, James and his friend worked courageously and with great ability as they attempted to save a desperate man involved in the accident, Mr. Wallace Reaves of Primm Springs; and

WHEREAS, while trying to help Mr. Reaves, a third vehicle struck the two cars already involved in the accident, thereby injuring everyone, including James and "Jimbo"; and

WHEREAS, although painful and requiring medical treatment, James was fortunate that his injuries were not as extensive as those of his friend "Jimbo", who had his leg crushed in the accident; and

WHEREAS, this great state is fortunate to have such brave and fearless citizens as James and "Jimbo"; not often is a state or community blessed with such unselfish individuals; and

WHEREAS, a Tennessee native, James is the son of Katherine Gossett; he is a graduate of Hickman County High School and is employed as a construction worker for C&D Safety; and

WHEREAS, James is most appreciative of the love and support he shares with his family, including his wife, Melinda; his two sons, Cody J. Sargent and Jeffery Wayne Sargent; and one daughter, Katherine Cadasta (K.C.) Moore; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that we should pause to honor and commend James Wade Moore who acted in the finest traditions of the Volunteer State and displayed exceptional courage, valor and a sense of self-sacrifice; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, That we hereby honor and commend James Wade Moore of Lyles upon his heroic efforts at the scene of a dangerous motor vehicle accident.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
